RE: Monica Lizet Romero
Rubi Romero

CONTINUATION:

Agents responded and arrived at the residence located in Roma, Texas. Officer Garza with the Escobares Police Department advised that they received a phone call regarding suspected aliens being dropped off at the residence. Officer Garza claimed contact was made with the home owner later identified as Rubi Romero, a United States Citizen. Officer Garza advised Romero of the information regarding illegal aliens at her house to which Romero provided verbal consent to enter the residence. Officer Garza claimed they encountered three suspected undocumented aliens inside a bedroom along with a female subject later identified as Monica Lizet Romero, a United States Citizen.

Agents conducted an immigration inspection on all three subjects and determined that they were illegally present in the United States.

Agents proceeded to interview Rubi Romero and read her Miranda Rights. Rubi Romero freely admitted to harboring the illegal aliens and stated her sister-in-law Monica Lizet Romero picked up the aliens and brought them to her residence.

All subjects were transported to the Rio Grande City Border Patrol Station to be processed accordingly.

PRINCIPAL STATEMENT:

Monica Lizet Romero was read her Miranda Rights. She understood and agreed to provide a sworn statement without the presence of an attorney.

Romero claimed she was visiting her sister in law's house and saw the people there. Romero claims that her sister in law told her that a gray car dropped the people off. Romero denied any involvement in human smuggling.

CONTINUATION:

CO-PRINCIPAL STATEMENT:

Rubi Romero was read her Miranda Rights. She understood and agreed to provide a sworn statement without the presence of an attorney.

Romero claimed that she received a call from a human smuggler to offer her $100 to "scout" for law enforcement while her sister-in-law Monica Romero picked up illegal immigrants near the Rio Grande River. Romero stated that she was in a three way call with the smuggler and Monica while the smuggler walked the group to where Monica was to pick them up. Romero stated that while on the phone she heard when the subjects boarded Monica's vehicle. Romero stated that while on the phone the smuggler offered her $70 per person if she harbored the illegal aliens in her house to which she agreed.

Rubi Romero stated that when she arrived to her house, the illegal aliens were getting off Monica's vehicle and walking into her house. Romero stated that once the three subjects were inside her property she instructed them to go into one of the bedrooms.

Rubi Romero identified Monica Lizet Romero, through a photo lineup, as the person that picked up the illegal aliens.

MATERIAL WITNESSES STATEMENTS:

Jesucita Vazquez-Reyes and Luis Alberto Rubio-Rubio were read their Miranda Rights. Both understood and agreed to provide a sworn statement without the presence of an attorney.

Vasquez, a citizen of Mexico, stated that a friend made her smuggling arrangements and paid $1,500 upfront. Vasquez stated that she crossed the river in a raft with three other subjects. Vasquez stated that after walking they arrived to a road where a black truck was waiting for them and that a female driver signaled with the hands to get in the vehicle. Once in the vehicle, Vasquez stated that the female drove to a house and instructed them to go inside. Vasquez stated that once in the house another female in the residence offered them food and water.
